

THE CULTURAL COLLABORATIVE

Vision

Because the creative expressions, both traditional and contemporary, of our diverse cultures and communities nourish us all, the people of San Antonio are committed to the expansion of resources, leadership, and infrastructure to support a healthy creative economy that benefits residents and visitors alike.

Principles

Major themes and needs identified through the community process.

Authenticity	Access	Awareness	Resources	Leadership	Creative Sector
Enhancing San Antonio's unique culture, heritage and architecture	Providing greater access to arts and culture to residents throughout San Antonio	Increasing community awareness of the role and value of all San Antonio's arts and culture	Providing increased resources of all types	Coordinating and developing new leadership	Strengthening the people, businesses and organizations of the creative sector

Draft Recommendations

There are draft recommendations addressing TCC's principles and the ten specific planning issues. These recommendations are inter-related and often address more than one need. Please refer to the accompanying Draft Recommendations document.

Implementation Partners

Implementation of TCC will require a cooperative effort among many community partners. A key partner will be “The Cultural Collaborative,” a diverse group of community leaders arising from the existing Steering Committee to oversee implementation. A list of potential lead agencies includes:
